DETAILED ACTION

Note WO2004/016623 which is the closest to the claimed subject matter, but the reference is not prior art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2, 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

1. The purpose of claim 2 is unclear. All bases are either organic or inorganic, and so the claim does not appear to further limit claim 1, as it is required to do.
2. In claim 9, it is now unclear whether the base is the base used to prepare I or the base used in the acylations step, or both.
3. The same is true for the claim 10 solvent.
4. Likewise for the temperature limitation of claim 11.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The addition to claim 7 appears to be new matter. Where in the specification is that particular trimethyl silyl group mentioned?

Specification

The abstract is objected to. It states that there is a process, but does not state what the process actually consists of.
